

Home School Holiday Music & Art Class

December 19 from 9am-noon

The holiday seasons are coming and mom and dad have errands to run! Let them learn and be creative while you shop! Drop the kids at 5 Pine Street Ext. for a special and class where time will be divided equally between the music and art projects. In the art class students will use their creativity to make unique holiday ornaments with polymer clay, acrylic paint and glitter glue while learning basic handbuilding techniques. In the music class students will compose a piece using either standard music notation or their own system as guided by the music instructor.
